

Save the Date

Minetta Brook High Line Benefit

Thursday, October 20, 2005

Maggie Trakas. Ann Hamilton, left and Alice Waters, right.

Thursday, October 20, 2005

Dia art Foundation

548 West 22nd Street, New York City

Cocktails at 6:30 pm

Dinner at 7:30 pm

Festive dress

Minetta Brook's High Line Benefit takes place at Dia Art Foundation's Chelsea exhibition facility. Dia's New York City exhibition program is on hiatus, and plans are underway for a new facility at the future entrance of the High Line in the Meatpacking District.

---

The Board of Directors of Minetta Brook request the pleasure of your company at a fundraising dinner for a new arts program for the High Line, a 1.5 mile elevated railway that runs along the West Side of Manhattan and is being transformed into a new open public space. This fall, Minetta Brook will initiate a collaborative project by artist Ann Hamilton and chef-activist Alice Waters that focuses on food and the High Line, engaging youth, families, and the broader community of Chelsea.

Chef Jonathan Waxman

Former chef at Chez Panisse and Michael's in California, Jonathan Waxman's acclaimed new restaurant Barbuto, located just a few blocks south of the High Line, was voted best new Italian restaurant in 2005 by New York Magazine.

For more information please visit <http://www.minettabrook.org/> or email info@minettabrook.org

---